Age-friendly Māngere-Ōtāhuhu

2018 Census

Auckland has the largest population of people aged 65 and older in New Zealand, living in different local board areas.

Auckland's older population is not a homogenous group. Differences include :

- life stages
- needs and abilities
- ethnicity and language
- rural or urban location
- financial independence.

These differences affect how older people contribute and participate in their local area and wider community.

8% of the Māngere-Ōtāhuhu's population was over 65 years of age in 2018 growing to 14% in 2043

Over half of people living in Māngere-Ōtāhuhu are aged 40 or under
